2. Mr. Mandel, of the staff of the Interr	nal Security Subcommittee, called to state that the Committee would have	as a witness on 29 March a Latvian now an An	nerican citizen and author of STAT . This box	ok is alleged to be heavily proamittee would like to have, in confidence, any information we had concerning appropriate Baltic refugee of sufficient emine	ence to testify concerning the "slant" of "The Baltic Riddle" and certain fac	cts in connection with it. After STAT consultation with	told Mr. Mandel that the hest refugee we might recommend was	the last Minister STAT of Public Affairs in Latvia, who was consider	red to be well versed in the ins and outs of Communism. I suggested to I	Mr. Mandel that he might wish to check with the Kersten Committee investig	rating the takeover of the Baltic nations as to their suggested for a witness an	d as to the effectiveness of Barring when he appeared before their Comm	